Patron Saint of Robbing the Cradle

Jerry purred as he crawled onto the bed, moving on his hands and knees so that he hovered over the other man. "You're not usually my type, you know."

"Yes, I know. You generally like them right out of diapers." He replied, laughing softly and tilting his head back.

"Not true," Jerry pouted and dipped his head to bite the neck that was offered to him so generously. "I wait until they are at least out of high school. And even then, I ask for ID."

"How saintly of you."

"That's me, Saint Jerry."

"Patron saint of cradle robbers?"
